United Methodist Homes announces promotions and achievements

United Methodist Homes named Ron Patti executive director of its Hilltop Campus in Johnson City. He joined UMH in January 2015 as administrator of the James G. Johnston Memorial Nursing Home. At UMH's Elizabeth Church Campus, Anna-Marie Batz, registered dietitian, received the Preceptor of the Year award from Marywood University; Tara Babcock, director of quality management, earned her RAC-CT and QCP certifications; and Jennifer Zacharek is the new administrator of Saint Louise Manor.

United Methodist Homes is a church-related 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, founded in 1958, that operates two continuing care retirement communities in the Greater Binghamton region of New York and another in the Scranton/Wilkes-Barre region of Pennsylvania, and a personal care campus in Tunkhannock, Pa. UMH serves more than 1,100 residents at its four sites and has more than 1,000 employees.
